Dear President Bush:

I am writing to bring to your attention a judicial matter facing two of my constituents. Misters Tom and Jack Reviglio have filed with the Department of Justice their Petitions for Pardon after Completion of Sentence. I respectfully request that you give full and fair consideration to their pardon applications.

Both Tom and Jack Reviglio have been very active members in their community for years. They have served in several philanthropic organizations in Northern Nevada, including the Boys & Girls Club and Junior Achievement. They also have been highly supportive of programs at the University of Nevada, Reno.

Given their commitment to their community and the fact that they have taken responsibility for their prior actions that led to their conviction, it is my hope that you would give their Petitions for Pardon after Completion of Sentence full and fair consideration. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jim Gibbons
Member of Congress

The Honorable Jim Gibbons
House of Representatives
300 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Gibbons:

This responds to your letter of September 9, 2005, to the President concerning the pardon applications filed by your constituents, Messrs. Jack and Tom Reviglio.

The pardon applications of the Messrs. Reviglio remain under consideration. Your views are appreciated, and your letter has been made part of their respective clemency files. The executive clemency process frequently is lengthy, and I am unable to advise you when the Messrs. Reviglio may expect decisions on their applications. Please be assured, however, that my office will notify their counsel promptly when the President has taken final action on their pardon requests.

Thank you for writing to the President, and for your interest in these matters.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams
Pardon Attorney
